Features Key:

When should I play? You may play without a group, but it is more fun to play in groups, and you can make friends with other adventurers while riding on quest mounts! Additionally, a greater variety of party members and quests will be offered.

Online Community You can join a guild and receive guild goods from the character of your choice. Players can talk to each other, hunt for rare items, and communicate in the same chat room.

Fighting Game Enter into battle and show how good you are! You can enjoy battles against opponents as you versus AI-controlled or real-time opponents.

Arrow Key or Fight System Enter a boss battle with just a single arrow key! For those seeking a unique battle system, this is your game! You can enjoy using the combat system featuring the fighting system, or you can just enjoy the gameplay.

Wizardry Elements Many players enjoyed the fun and exciting battles provided through the GW engine. Those who enjoy weapons are able to enjoy the atmosphere expressed in Wizardry, which emphasizes the magic element of the GW games. You can enjoy the adventure of roleplaying for yourself as well as enjoying the world of such a magical fantasy.

Amazeballs 12-28-2004, 05:49 AM Im gonna buy this game And I know what its about but I love rpg's like this. me like's magic items and skills and fighting Pretty darn fine. I was told to watch magic buffs. Ok. If I want dumbed down I cant wait to play Wesnoth. - - Anyways. Anyway: anything about mount then Alfie 12-28-2004, 05:55 AM Hmm... I'm going to pick this up simply because I'd appreciate an updated and fun take on the elder scrolls franchise. Much like Skyrim, I'll play this solely due to the fact that it will be very enjoyable. I know what it's about already, but that's why I love roleplaying games. Oh, and when are you going to have a copy of Sanctum? You've been working pretty hard on that lately. :P Master_Consul 12-28-2004, 06:02 AM This game looks pretty good! There's a lot of

Recently, we have been working on incorporating webcam security into the game. In circumstances where the game encountered a webcam, it is notified immediately without loading the game. We have prepared a feature indicating the number of notifications from a web browser. This measure allows players to immediately recognize instances and will help eliminate inconvenience by going through the process. However, is there any way to make it so that anyone viewing the web cam cannot easily recognize the browser's position at any time?

I'm glad that, after working separately for over three years, we are able to share the project to the public. There are many who have to spend a lot of time waiting for a project's progress, but the development is proceeding well. I appreciate the efforts and concerns of all the supporters who have been following us over the years, and I hope that from here on, the game can be enjoyed by everyone. Let's have an enjoyable experience that everyone can enjoy together.

been dreaming about this for the last five years and I've developed a lot of other games aside from ELDEN RING. Also, I've been watching Gamespot every day to see what's on the site. I was really impressed with their coverage of ELDEN RING, which is why I wanted to become their writer. I also noticed some of the writers and reviewers who had been complaining about the difficulty of the game weren't actually covering it all that well. I feel like this is a good time to help them and the community spread the word about the game. And if you are willing to support us, we
