Local and Remote Educational Enhancement with Formative Assessment Since October 2012, an innovative, Web-based program called Formative Assessment Local Educational Enhancement (FALL) has been offering a selection of personalized pre-, mid-, and post-assessment services to teachers and families of children with intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD). It's not "formative" in the way we typically use the word--to mean "in the moment," but rather the assessment is done in real-time, in relationship with the teacher and family, to provide personalized feedback to the teacher and parent, which strengthens the connection between home and school.
