Design Changes - The Design Change command allows users to make changes to an existing drawing. The Design Change command is found under the HOME tab of the ribbon toolbar. Enter the Design Change dialog box by clicking the Design Change icon on the ribbon toolbar or selecting its entry under the Home tab. The Design Change dialog box allows the user to choose a drawing to open for the changes. When the drawing is open, click the Change tab. Next, select the tools that you want to use in making changes. You can use the tools to add, subtract, rotate, or mirror the objects in the drawing. In addition, if the object you want to move is on more than one layer, you will see a check box at the top of the Design Change window. You can use the check box to select the objects that you want to move. You can use the Line Style Editor to create and modify lines. The Line Style Editor is found under the Modify tab. The Line Style Editor allows you to create a line with a specific type of line, with a specific color, line style, and line width. In addition, you can easily modify the line. Line Type Editor

Its two-hour morning breakfast programme, Drive, ran from 2003 to 2007, with 7TWO replacing it as the breakfast presenter. Drive hosted by Charles Wooley and Megan Richards ran from 2003 to 2008. After Drive ended in 2007, the former Drive presenter, Richie Benaud returned to the Breakfast show, presenting until January 2009. In addition to the weekday breakfast, the station broadcasts a number of programmes in each day including a half-hourly local news bulletin during the week and news updates throughout the morning and afternoon drive times. There is also a weeknight edition of the SBS news bulletin program Statewide which is presented from 7.00pm on weeknights. Seven News operates a full news service for Seven News every weekday between 6.00pm and 7.00pm. On weeknights, the station also broadcasts the Australian and New Zealand cricket matches which are streamed live via the Ten Cricket website. News headlines In November 2006, Seven News Central Victoria broke the news that the Victorian Public Service Commission was investigating Victoria Police (the organisation that covers the Melbourne metropolitan area) over an alleged cover-up of an investigation into the activities of Melbourne Gangs Task Force. ca3bfb1094
